Game is very short, its literally just the same random 2 or 3 minute timed mini game where you cook and try not to spill.
Its fun, graphics are great. Voice gets annoying so does the repetativeness but you get what you paid for.
Not trying to turn anyone off, its good casual \/ party showing off type game. But there isnt enough to do to keep you IN it.
 Id like to recommend to the Devs to add an endless mode as a bear minimum. Id also like to see more items to be able to bake, more challenge. Seems like a great beginning, im hoping there are plans for more? :)
